Foreword

The curtain of the 1961 MACRINITE is about to rise. Mount St. Macrina Academy, our little theater, is the setting for this unforgettable drama. Fourteen imaginative stars, capable understudies, under the guidance of our producer and directors make up this memorable cast.

The various dramas of mystery, music, and comedy have been portrayed in the classroom settings. Leadership and talent have been discovered and developed through extracurricular activities.

As the houselights dim, we prepare to meet the drama of life.

REVEREND MOTHER M. DANIEL, Provincial Superior

Dedication

The graduating class of 1961 wish to dedicate their final production to you, Reverend Mother Daniel, our newly-elected Mother Provincial.

As Mary's double, you have done more than your share to instill in our hearts and minds a deep love and devotion for Our Lady. We shall always strive to maintain the ideals that you gave to make us perfect Christian women.

Your friendliness, counsel, and understanding guided us through the rehearsal for our future play in life.

We are honored to bequeath this memory book as an acknowledgment of our indebtedness to you for all you have done.

REV. JULIAN M. GNALL, O.S.B.
Chaplain; Religious Instructor; Spiritual Adviser

As religion teacher and chaplain, Father Julian, O.S.B., has taught us to view ourselves in the light of Mary. With her virtues illuminating the stage of our lives, we shall go forth equipped to meet every challenge that will come our way.

Principal's Message

My dear Graduates:

Graduation Day brings to a close your "first act of life" and thus ends our responsibility to imparting to you the Christian way of living and Academic learning. The task of applying these principles now shifts to you in the "stage of life" and the role you choose will be your "screen test" where you will undergo daily observation by the Divine Talent Scout.

It is our sincere desire and prayer that you will be given a role in the "Final Play" - the Eternal Drama - where Heaven is the "Stage."

Sincerely,

Sister M. Bernadette
